Date a Record Breaker Party With:

Here are some ideas for people you can ask to host parties during Record Breaker. Ask everyone you know! Explain what Record Breaker is and what role your Hosts play in helping you break your records. Here are some people you might ask.

- Friends
- Relatives
- Your past Hosts
- Neighbors
- Co-workers
- Relatives
- Moms of your children's friends
- School teachers
- Club Members (PTA, Card Clubs, etc.)
- Sport league members (Bowling, Golf, Tennis, etc.)
- Hair Stylist/Manicurist
- High School/College Friends
- People who work at your Doctor or Dentist's offices
- Bank Tellers
- People at your place of worship
- Party guests who said "maybe later"
- Leads from local events (ex. women's shows, vendor events, etc.)
- Tailgating leads
- People who work at your local restaurants/diners
- Last year's Record Breaker Hosts

Where will you take the party? Remember it doesn't have to be in someone's home... You can party in a home, at an office, a meeting room or a local restaurant. Parties can be held practically everywhere
